TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

DR. JOHN B. OWSELEY PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Death Comes Unexpectedly to Founder of Lincoln County National Bank Friday Night.

Dr. John B. Owsley died at his home in this city on Friday evening death being due to a stroke of apoplexy. He had been confined to his home for several months on account of the feebleness incident to advancing years, but of late he had been steadily improving and was in the streets the day before his death.

The grim reaper has been unsparring of our good old man of late and it is the cause of universal sorrow that Dr. Owsley has been added to his list of victims, for this community owes much to the fact that the greater portion of his life was spent in it.

Of English descent on the paternal, and Scotch-Irish on the maternal side Dr. Owsley was born at Pysgah, in Pulaski county, Kentucky, November 3, 1833, and was one of the best of the excellent men sent out by that section to lead lives of usefulness all over the land. He was one of the several children of Dr. Walter W. Owsley, who moved to this county many years ago and spent his declining years here.

After receiving his elementary education at the local schools in the community where he was born, Dr. Owsley graduated from Centre College in the class of '54 and after wards from one of the leading medical colleges of New York, after which he served a term as an intern in one of the New York hospitals and was then offered but declined the position of surgeon on one of the vessels of war. He then returned to Kentucky and actively and successfully engaged in the practice of medicine at Crab Orchard and in this county for several years. He retired from practice and organized the Deposit Bank of Stanford, the predecessor of the Lincoln County National, February 7, 1870, and was cashier of that institution from its organization until January 1, 1905, when he retired and cast his mantle on the shoulders of W. M. Hight, whom he had trained from his boyhood infancy.

In many respects Dr. Owsley was a very remarkable man. Though he had no previous financial training he developed into a first-class financier immediately after taking up the duties of cashier. His bank prospered from the first and was soon recognized as one of the most substantial institutions of the kind in the country, not only at home but also among the financial centers in the cities. On this account he could always get all the city looking that he desired in times of depression, and was thereby easily enabled to weather the financial storms that periodically sweep the country.

As a judge of human nature, Dr. Owsley was almost infallible. He was always the helper of young men who were worthy of it, and helped them in the best of all ways by putting them in a position to help themselves. The security that he preferred was the possession of industry and integrity by the person desiring a loan. Scores of our most prosperous men owe their success to the fact that he trusted them at the time when they could offer no security save their honor.

His energy knew no bounds. Though his work in the bank was more than sufficient to keep one man busy, it did not satisfy his desire for labor and he was most of the time operating two or three farms in addition, administering on estates, acting as trustee and guardian for numbers of orphans besides being the adviser of the greater part of the community on all matters pertaining to business, all having confidence in his judgment, his advice was freely sought and cheerfully given. He was likewise a very charitable man. No worthy appeal for help was made to him in vain, though he had no reticence with indulgence and was not willing to encourage it.

For more than 40 years he was the intimate friend and business associate of Mr. S. H. Shanks, and it is singular that both should be taken in less than a week's time and at places not a stone's throw distant. Dr. Owsley was first married to Miss Susan E. Pennington on May 8, 1856, and this union was blessed with two children, Mr. E. P. Owsley, the well known banker of Columbus, Ga., and Miss Mattie Hays Owsley, who died when blooming into womanhood. His second wife, who survives him, was Mrs. Mary E. Pennington to whom he was married December 31, 1874. When a College student he attached himself to the Presbyterian church and died a member of that fold.

This good and great man was laid to rest in Buffalo Springs Cemetery Sunday afternoon, after services at his late residence by Rev. P. L. Bruce. A host of friends gathered to pay the last tribute of love and respect to his memory and beautiful flowers covered the bier as he was laid away. The pallbearers were: Active, Walter D. Walker, Ed M. Walker, S. A. Walker, E. D. Pennington, J. Owsley Reid, Walter M. Owsley.

Honorary, J. B. Paxton, W. M. Hight, E. P. Woods, J. S. Hocker, J. N. Menefee, T. D. Newland, J. W. Meern, J. B. Higgins.

ONE-SIDED UMPIRING

Lost Game for High School at London, Say Local Boys.

The High School ball team went to London Saturday and were defeated by the Sae Bennett Memorial team by a score of 7 to 6. The local boys say that they would not have been defeated had not the home nine and valiant assistance from the umpire, who, they say, called a foul ball fair in the ninth inning with two men on bases, letting in two runs. The box score was as follows:

A wide circle of friends will wish them every happiness.

SPLENDID EQUINES ON PARADE HERE MONDAY

Horse Show Day Brings Big Crowd To Town To View Fine Horses on Exhibition.

Five or six hundred people came to town Monday to see the Horse Show. April court day is always Horse Show day in Lincoln county, and the owners of the blooded equines have them on display, and put them through their paces for the entertainment and instruction of the lay throng which always attends.

Horse show this year brought out a splendid exhibition of high class animals. Nearly all the familiar stallions were on hand, while there were some fiery youngsters which attracted a great deal of favorable comment, and will undoubtedly prove very popular.

The owners kept their beauties in Hazley's stable in the morning where they were visited by hundreds and in the afternoon paraded them on lower Main street. Among those on exhibition were:

Cedron Lent, the great trotter, shown by C. E. Tate and Jas. Messinger.
Almost Dare, the crack saddle, under Smith Powell.
Garland Chief, Joe Murphy's great stallion.
Dean Naboth, driven by H. C. Baughman and looking mighty good.
Harvey Highland, W. M. Dodd's new sire, driven by Willie Stage and making a fine show.

All Peavine, Dick Scudder's magnificent show horse.

Carroll Bailey made a great hit with his young stallion Preston, Jr., known as the Jim Smith horse.

King Eagle, Jr., handsomer than ever, was shown by T. G. Caldwell and son, of Waynesburg.

George Shelby's Norman stallion, Albo, and E. G. Buckley's handsome black young Percheron, Sanson, attracted much attention.

Ed Ballard had Don Varrick, the splendidly bred son of Onward Silver.

Carroll Preston and High Cloud, W. D. Walker's pair of beauties, were shown under halter and looked better than ever. This is a pair to draw to.

One of the handsomest horses seen was J. Nevin Carter's magnificent Percheron, Voltaire, which created lots of favorable talk.

Cress & Parrish had on exhibition a splendid young aumal Rex Moki, a son of old Rex Peavine, which showed his class all over.

Morgan S. Baughman, Jr., had his two little Shetlands in fine shape and had lots of inquiries.

M. Pike had the new young stallion Washington Jewell, which he will stand near Ottumwa.

Col Sam Harris and R. H. Woods were distributing circulars of their great sires Ashland Brook and King Eagle, which are well known in this section.

Dick Scudder was getting lots of inquiries about Jordan Peacock which he has recently secured.

John K. Baughman was telling his friends about his fine sire Watzman, also a couple of fine jacks and a Shetland he has at Hustonville, where Smith Baughman also distributed cards of his jack and his son's Shetlands.

Sam J. Embry, Jr., was receiving many inquiries about his handsome little Shetland Dock, while John B. Foster was telling his friends how that Dock they is again at his place this season.

The Interior Journal due here Friday came dragging in Monday afternoon, looking tired.

The graded school will close Thursday with an entertainment at the Yosemite Christian church at night.

Jason Lawhorn has had some needed improvement done on the Golden Dawn Hotel, and he tells us that the prospects for a profitable season are quite flattering. Orders for water have already begun to come in and he has made several shipments.

Miss Fannie Lind Royalty has pneumonia.

Mrs. C. T. Allen and her sister, Mrs. P. H. Hargen, of Liberty, were on the bank Saturday en route home from visiting their father, Mr. J. J. Elliott, who is seriously ill at his home near McKinney.

McD. Fogle was down Saturday to see his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fogle.

John Q. Rowland went to Liberty Thursday on business. Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Claunch visited relatives in Mercer last week. Mr. and Mrs. Q. R. Jones went to Liberty Sunday to see their daughter, Mrs. Dr. W. G. Sweeney.

If George E. Stone was a candidate for Congress we believe that nine tenths of the voters in Casey would be for him, but with George out of the way it looks like Harvey Helm first, last and all the time. Mr. Helm was here last week but it was not our good fortune to meet him.

George Austin was here Monday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Henry and Will Luttrell, charging them with stealing chickens. They live in the Walltown section.

There is said to have been considerable drunkenness in Yosemite Saturday night. A couple of fights of small dimensions are said to have been engaged in. You will likely hear more about it later on.

LICENSE UNTIL NEW LAW GOES INTO EFFECT

Council Gives J. W. Acey Permit to Conduct Soft Drink Stand Until June 12th.

Soft drink license was granted to J. W. Acey until the new law goes into effect, on June 12th, by the City Council at its regular meeting last Thursday night. There was practically no opposition to such action. The petition signed by a number of citizens asking that no license be granted for a year was presented to the Councilman, many of whom, however, saw no necessity for such action, as they had already gone on record as opposed to granting the licenses for a year in view of the passage of the anti-hoop law by the General Assembly.

A rather warm discussion was had on the subject between those presenting the petition, and the Councilman, the former arguing that it was the right of any and every citizen to petition, it desired, and that the petition presented was simply to show the wishes of a large number of taxpayers concerning an important matter.

Councilmen Pence and Powell were appointed a chairman to investigate, the extension of water mains out Miller street. A petition to extend the concrete pavements to the colored Baptist church was referred to the street committee.

Councilman Ed Wilkinson introduced an ordinance granting a new franchise to the Stanford Water Light & Ice Co., its old franchise expiring this year. The franchise was submitted to the City Attorney for examination.

Messrs. H. C. Baughman and J. S. Hocker requested an additional acre light on Somerset avenue, which was referred to the Light committee.

BROKEN-HEARTED MOTHER

Writes to I. J. About the Killing of Her Son at Moreland

Mrs. Sadie G. Murphy, mother of George Murphy, who was killed by a dynamite blast at Moreland for which a verdict was rendered by a jury in court here, writes the I. J. that her son and his wife were visiting at the hotel in Moreland and George Murphy and his wife and little child were visiting them at the time of the unfortunate affair. Mrs. Murphy writes that her son did not go in the auto with the other young men to Hustonville that Sunday morning hunting a drink, nor had drunk any whisky, in order to show that Mr. Murphy was not mixed up in the crowd of carousers that fatal day, the mother points out that it was testified that when they came back from Hustonville, the men from Harrodsburg called for a room and Sam and George Murphy were standing talking on the veranda of the hotel. "One of the men asked who that was Sam was talking to. They said it was Sam's brother. They said they wanted to meet him. The proprietor of the hotel took them to their room and they sent him back to invite Sam and George up to their room and they sent the second time before they went. When they got to the room they had some bottles of malt meal. Then and there Noel commenced with his pistol. The result you already know."

"On that evening he forgotten night, I had retired and had fallen to sleep when a rap at my door awoke me, about half after ten o'clock, and a messenger saying 'Your son Sam sent me for you, George has been shot' Oh! The agony of that moment. As soon as I could get ready, we started and through the dark hours of the night, drove 22 miles with my daughter. When we arrived and beheld his prostrate form, the bed all covered with blood, his clothes all covered with blood, that had run from his noble veins. Oh! What a sad, sad scene for an old mother of 70 years to behold. Her dear child who had lived with her all his life and was taking care of her in her old days. I had all this to bear. There was no other way that I could do but bear it."

TAFT SWEEPS STATE IN REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS

Lincoln County Goes for President By Two to One—Eleventh For Roosevelt.

Lincoln county republicans instructed for Taft at the county convention here Saturday by a vote of about two to one. Dr. R. L. Davison was endorsed for re-election as chairman of the county committee and a committee named composed of his friends. The Taft faction was victorious all along the line and "rubbed it in" good and strong upon their opponents, the "lily whites."

There was no doubt but that the Taft followers easily outnumbered the Roosevelt Republicans. The big majority of the former were the covered voters of the party, while most of the Roosevelt men were white men. A great many of them said after the convention that they will vote for the democratic nominee for president this fall.

Chairman R. L. Davison called the convention to order. A. R. Florence was nominated for chairman by Dr. Tardiff, endorsed, while P. M. McRoberts nominated H. R. King. In placing the names of both men before the convention, Chairman Davison pointed out that Mr. King had been a better. By a rising vote, Mr. Florence was declared elected temporary chairman and John Kennedy was chosen secretary without opposition.

The following resolutions were offered and declared adopted by a rising vote, after the temporary organization had been made permanent:

We, the republicans of Lincoln county, in mass convention assembled, endorse the call for this and the district, state and national conventions. For delegates from this the 8th Congressional District to the National Convention to be held in Chicago, Ill., on the 18th of June, 1912 to nominate a Republican candidate for President we cheerfully and heartily endorse and instruct for our fellow countrymen, Geo. D. Florence and C. C. Wallace.

For delegates to said National Convention from this state at large we endorse Hon. Wm. H. Bradley, W. D. Cochran, Ed. Franks.

We endorse the administration of President Wm. H. Taft, and the wise and patriotic course pursued in National affairs by that great Kentuckian, of whom we are justly proud, United States Senator, William O'Connell Bradley, and we especially endorse his successful efforts in behalf of legislation favorable to the great tobacco interests of this state and the Union soldiers looking toward an increase in pensions to those brave soldiers and courageous men who fought to preserve this Union, and whose declining years should be passed and enjoyed by them in comfort and peace.

We hereby select for precinct delegates for this county and its members of the Republican Executive Committee of Lincoln county and for the several precincts thereof the following named republicans, who shall hold said positions for the period of four years as prescribed by our party law.

Stanford No. 1, J. W. Acey.
Stanford No. 2, Geo. W. Gentry.
Stanford No. 3, G. D. Florence.
Stanford No. 4, Wm. Cordier.
Waynesburg No. 1, T. J. Burleson.
Waynesburg No. 2, William Meeks.
Waynesburg No. 3, A. G. Faulkner.
Crab Orchard No. 1, Berry Howard.

Crab Orchard No. 2, K. D. Noakes.
Hustonville No. 1, T. J. Bell.
Hustonville No. 2, J. A. Blain.
Hustonville No. 3, Lee Manning.
Hustonville No. 4, Ora Gooch.

We hereby select the following delegates and alternates to attend both the state convention to be held in the city of Louisville, Ky., on the 10th inst., and the district convention to be held at Shelbyville on the 16th inst., the following well known Republicans, to-wit:

Delegates.—G. M. Davison, G. D. Florence, J. A. Blain, Jas. Grubbs, T. J. Bell, G. W. Gentry, W. D. Tardiff, A. L. Chandler, J. J. Green, Jas. Meek, H. H. Logan, Berry Howard, A. G. Faulkner, John Kennedy, T. J. Burleson, J. W. Acey, Ora Gooch, K. D. Noakes, Wm. Cordier.

Alternates.—Harrison, Graham, Green, Frye, Geo. Armstrong, Steve Dyer, Prof. Robert Durham, Joe Chennett, Wm. Adams, Joe Reed, Joe Cook, E. H. Farmer, John Tarter, Joe Phelps, Jno. Leach, Jno. Skidmore, Thos. Napier, Brack Grove.

Said named delegates to vote as a unit upon all questions coming before said conventions and for the persons herein instructed for and endorsed.

Taft Gets the State

Ten out of eleven congressional districts in the state went for Taft at the republican conventions Saturday, though there were a great many contests and cry of fraud by the Roosevelt men. The Eleventh district was the only one to go for Roosevelt. In Garrard, though the Taft people were outnumbered two to one, the Taft men "double crossed" them and will have the delegation with the credentials signed by the county chairman.

Boyle county went for Roosevelt, but it was the only one in this district to do so, though there are a number of contests by the Roosevelt men who claim that they were mistreated. This was the hardest fight the republicans have had in Kentucky in many years, and the losers are mighty "sore."

HUSTONVILLE

Miss Ella Barnett, of Hustonville, left Saturday to join her sister in St. Louis to be gone about three weeks.

Dr. Bertie Carpenter and mother returned Sunday from Florida where they have been spending the winter.

Col. Jack Chinn of Harrodsburg, candidate for congress, in this district was here last week giving the glad hand to the voters of this way. He had just returned from Adair and Casey counties hot on the trail of the "Tall Sycamore." Could the Colonel recall about twenty years, he could give Mr. Helm the "rim of his life." Too many years have lodged upon his shoulders for him to cope with the gallant Harvey.

R. M. and Mrs. Tate, motored to Harrodsburg Wednesday.

Miss Black Givens has returned from a delightful visit to Misses Reids of Danville.

T. J. Hill, of Stanford was here Monday.

Mrs. Dan Traylor was the guest of her mother Mrs. W. D. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Campbell were here for a few hours Monday.

George Bradley is in Lexington for a few days.

Miss Ella Barnett left Saturday for Louisville where she will visit a few days before leaving for St. Louis.

E. B. Powell went to Lexington Wednesday to visit his wife who is there for treatment under a nerve specialist.

Mrs. Sandy Carpenter and attractive daughter were guests of Mrs. G. C. Riffe Wednesday.

The candy pulling Friday evening given by the Base Ball Club was largely attended and all enjoyed the hospitality of the many courtesies of Prof. and Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. R. B. Carpenter and Dr. Bertie Carpenter have returned from Florida where they spent the winter, both are much pleased with the south.

Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Falls and attractive daughter Miss Clara of Danville, were here for a few hours Saturday.

TRADED FOR A LINCOLN FARM "SIGHT UNSEEN"

And Ras Allen, Who Went West Years Ago Is Much Pleased With Land He Got Here.

Ras Allen, who has been out West among and cow-punching in Oklahoma for the past several years, has returned to Kentucky, and bought a nice little farm in the King's Mountain section. The peculiar feature about his return is that he bought his place in Lincoln county "sight unseen" and is delighted with the trade he made.

Mr. Allen got the farm of about 5 acres from E. F. Dennis, of Fayetteville, Ark., known as the old McKee place near Kings Mountain. He had some property in Oklahoma, and traded it to Mr. Dennis for the farm at King's Mountain. Before long west, Mr. Allen lived on the acre Robinson farm, near the Boyle line, and was pretty familiar with Lincoln county land, before he bought it. As it was, he secured that is said to be one of the nicest farms in the southern section of the county and both he and his wife are greatly pleased with it.

Mr. Allen brought back with him from the west some seed of what is known as Kaffir corn, which grows especially well in regions where little water is to be had. He is going to plant some on his farm in this county and believes that it will do splendidly here, and profit against any danger of a shortage of the crop in the event of a drought. It is said to make an excellent feed for all kinds of stock.

Mr. Allen brought back quite a much of stock with him and will add considerably in all kinds of live stock as well as farm his place.

NOTED PRISONERS PAROLED

Charles E. Booe, former employe of the Auditor's office, convicted of embezzlement, was paroled last week by the Prison Commission. The parole was based on the largest portion ever filed before the State Prison Commission.

Judge Bone had served, in January last, three years of a thirteen-year sentence, for embezzlement of money from the State treasury. The money taken was above $35,000, and quite a good lot of it was recovered from bondsmen, against some of whom cases are yet pending. Booe, as claim clerk in the office of the State Auditor, was enabled to cover the stealing through several years by means of a defective voucher system. The commission also released another noted prisoner in the person of James H. Parrish, the former Owensboro banker. Parrish was serving a five-year sentence at Edenville prison for receiving deposits after the bank became insolvent. Parrish had been confined for about three years.

The Christian Endeavor and Baptist people gave a very enjoyable Easter Program Sunday night at the Christian church.

Messrs. N. B. Coy and C. C. Coy, of Madison, were guests of L. L. Sanders Sunday night.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson, of Lancaster, is with his daughter Mrs. Alvin Holmes.

Miss Katie Melvin spent several days with Miss Emma Rogers.

Mr. D. C. Payne, of Harboresville, is in Crab Orchard for a visit with homefolks.

Mrs. M. V. Sigler, was brought here Tuesday and buried in Crab Orchard cemetery. She was in Texas on a visit when she died. Everyone here is glad to know that J. F. Holman, of this place, has been appointed circuit clerk.

Kentucky Democrats feel very kindly toward Champ Clark, as a general thing, but the great rank and file of the party are going to be very slow about jumping into the band wagon with the bunch of would be leaders who were exploited in the Courier-Journal a day or so ago as at the head of the Clark fight in this state. Editors Summers, of the Elizabethtown News, points out very pungently that the conference of Clark leaders in Washington was a "political farce comedy" composed of a bunch of "dead ones." The men who have assumed the Clark leadership are those who endeavored to defeat McCreary for the nomination for governor, and then tried to control the platform convention at Louisville under the leadership of Mr. Watterson, but signally failed.
According to the Courier-Journal's own dispatch, they are attempling to wrest control of the party's organization in the state, from the tried and true friends of McCreary.
Mr. Clark is seriously embarrassed and handicapped by the men who have gone to the front for him in Kentucky.

The Very Rev. Walter Taylor
Sumner, Dean of the Protestant Episcopal Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul, Chicago, who was the head of the Chicago Vice Commission, has announced that hereafter no marriage will be performed by any of the clergymen attached to the parish until the contracting parties have obtained a "clean bill of health," signed by a reputable physician to the effect that they are normal physically and mentally, and have neither an incurable nor communicable disease.

If the legislatures of the various states would enact such a law, with such penalties attached as to insure its observance what a boon it would be to the human race in the elimination of disease and sub-normal mentality. The intelligent farmer his live stock upon this principle and thereby improves his cattle, horses, swine and sheep, but the men and women of the land disregard this elemental law of nature, and as a consequence, our asylums and hospitals and homes are filled with children of diseased body and diseased mind. No unsound man or woman has the right to marry and bring into the world diseased children. It is both lack of sense and lack of heart; and if the individual conscience does not prevent it, then the strong arm of the law should intervene.

There seems to us to be as much justification for American intervention in Mexican affairs right now, as there was when our government stepped into the constant embroilment between the Cubans and Spain a dozen years ago. The upshot of which was that he assumed a benevolent protectorate over the island until she could straighten out her own affairs. One revolution treads upon the heels of another in our southern neighbor, so fast they follow. Why not step in and put an end to the whole business by annexing Mexico?

R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Benegat
N. J., was troubled with a severe lung gripe cough. He says: "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all the coughing spells had entirely ceased. It can't be beat."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. This Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Dr. J. C. Carter's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is a purely natural remedy, and its use is entirely safe and reliable, and it is the only remedy that will cure the disease, and give the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

SPRING SUITING

My new spring and summer samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market. I can suit anyone as to price who had his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. Come in and let me take your measure.

THERE IS REAL PAINT

and also some stuff mixed with cheapening materials that is not worthy of the name. If you have had experience with the latter kind you don't want another. If you haven't take our advice and don't experiment. Buy our real paints and save yourself disappointment and money as well.
